

Climates, Seasons, Weather, and More!

Worksheet Pack

By Homeschool Mom Michelle Huddleston

Name _____

Date _____

I Can Tell the Weather?

Use what you know about weather to fill in the blanks and answer the questions below.

Take a look outside and write what you see:

Guess the Season.

Clue # 1: During this season flowers begin to bloom.

Clue # 2: During this season the days are a little warmer.

Clue # 3: During this season bees around the blooming flowers.

What season am I? _____

Clue # 1: During this season the days are long.

Clue # 2: During this season the days get really hot.

Clue # 3: During this season there may be a lot of storms.

What season am I? _____

Clue # 1: During this season the days are really short.

Clue # 2: During this season the weather can get really cold.

Clue # 3: During this season you may see sleet, snow, and ice storms.

What season am I? _____

Write a sentence about your favorite season. Then, draw a picture of it.

Name _____ Date _____

What Do Seasons Look Like?

Draw a picture of each season.

FALL

WINTER

SPRING

SUMMER

Name _____

Date _____

In the Zone

What would an environment look like in the TEMPERATE zone? Write a sentence and draw a picture.

What would an environment look like in the TROPICAL zone? Write a sentence and draw a picture.

What would an environment look like in the POLAR zone? Write a sentence and draw a picture.

Name _____

Date _____

When Weather Conditions Collide

Cut and paste. Match each weather condition with its definition.

warm air with a lot of moisture colliding with colder air causing them to swirl or twist together electricity created when water and ice particles collide in a cloud frozen moisture that turns into ice pellets too heavy to stay in the air

when an area gets a lot of rain in a short period of time

LIGHTNING	FLASH FLOOD	TORNADO	HAIL
------------------	--------------------	----------------	-------------

THANK YOU!

Thank you for purchasing my Climate Worksheet Pack! My hopes are that your children/students will increase in their knowledge about this particular subject by exercising what they have learned.

The above worksheets can be used in correspondence with the Climate Lesson Pack or by themselves.

Be sure to check out my Climate Test Pack!