

Name: _____ Letter Writing for Beginners

Fill out each box by answering the questions. Use your answers to write the beginning of your story.

Are you going to write about something that really happened, or something make believe?

I am going to write about something

What will the title of your story be?

How many characters will your story have?
Who will they be?

Who will be in the beginning of your story?

What will they be doing?

Where will your story begin (setting)?

What does this place look like? Use descriptive words.

Circle some different ways you may like to start your story:

Once upon a time... One day, there was...

There once was... Last year I...

This is a story about...

Write your own:

Use the answers to your questions to write the beginning of your story:
